

The New Jersey Education Association has awarded EHT School's Professional Development Committee for its excellence in providing job-embedded and collaborative professional development. This prestigious award is given in recognition of EHT School's local professional development plan, which incorporates excellent professional development practices and experiences.

Members of the committee recognized in this award are:

Joetta M. Surace, Director of Human Resources
Missy Peretti, Principal of Alder Avenue Middle School
Maria Dolbow, Chairman and School Reading Specialist
Linda Smith, Alder Avenue School Reading Specialist
Linda Szypula, Middle School Science Teacher